Psalm 139:1-2,13-15 (GW)

[For the choir director; a psalm by David.] O LORD, you have examined me, and you know me. You alone know when I sit down and when I get up. You read my thoughts from far away. You alone created my inner being. You knitted me together inside my mother. I will give thanks to you because I have been so amazingly and miraculously made. Your works are miraculous, and my soul is fully aware of this. My bones were not hidden from you when I was being made in secret, when I was being skillfully woven in an underground workshop.

Mark 10:46-52 (GW)

Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus, his disciples, and many people were leaving Jericho, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus, son of Timaeus, was sitting by the road. When he heard that Jesus from Nazareth [was passing by], he began to shout, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" The people told him to be quiet. But he shouted even louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stopped and said, "Call him!" They called the blind man and told him, "Cheer up! Get up! He's calling you." The blind man threw off his coat, jumped up, and went to Jesus. Jesus asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said, "Teacher, I want to see again." Jesus told him, "Go, your faith has made you well." At once he could see again, and he followed Jesus on the road.

Notes:

B.L.E.S.S.

From the beginning, God's way of reaching the world has been through a blessing strategy:

B Begin with prayer, "God, how do you want me to bless the people in the places you send me?"

L Listen. Don't talk too much, instead listen to people, their struggles, their pains.

E Eat. Have a meal with people or a cup of coffee. It builds relationships.

S Serve. If you listen to people and eat with them, they will tell you how to love them, serve them.

S Story. Share your story and how Jesus is in it. Share Jesus' story when the time is right.

God says, "I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing… and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you." - Genesis12:2-3
